

Technical Audits

The CMD Advanced Technologies Asia Technical Audit Report, provides a comprehensive assessment of the engineering services design, compliance with appropriate standards and codes, quality of installation, maintainability and record documentation, as part of a "Due Diligence Report" for existing buildings. The report would include a detailed Asset Schedule of major plant and equipment, with recommendations for refurbishment. Our Energy Audit Reports provides an assessment of energy usage, recommended energy saving measures, with associated budget cost savings