

Installation Management

CMD Advanced Technologies Asia provide supervision and monitoring of on-site installation of building engineering services systems, to ensure adherence to the specified standards and quality. In particular quality control of materials and workmanship, the detailed approval process required for contractor submissions and the testing and commissioning of the M&E systems.