

Test Instrumentation Supply

CMD Advanced Technologies Asia stock a wide range of calibrated instruments for building services testing and commissioning. This stock is constantly being updated to ensure that the latest technology is readily available to our staff and clients. When the full engagement of a commissioning specialist is not required, CMD Advanced Technologies can still assist by supplying certified calibrated test equipment for use by others.